Présentation de l'éditeur

Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov compares the power of sexual energy to that of petrol : Those who are ignorant and careless can be burned by it, their very quintessence devoured by this all-consuming force, but Initiates who know how to harness it, can use it to travel throughout space. What better image to help us understand the power of our sexuality ? And understanding it, why not choose to fly all the way to the stars instead of perpetually getting burned ? Table of contents: 1. Biographie de l'auteur

The distinguished philosopher and spiritual Master, Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov came to France in 1937. Although his work deals with many aspects of initiatic science, he makes it clear that: 'Each one of us must undertake his own self-development, but only if his goal is not solely for himself, but for the good of the collectivity. Then, the collectivity becomes a brotherhood. A brotherhood is a collectivity where true unity reigns, because by working on himself, each individual is also consciously working for the good of the whole.'
